DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. New corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in this application because figures 2, 3, 13 and 14 are not clear. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 9 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claim 9 depends from claim 9. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Art Unit: 3616

5. Claims 1, 2, 5, 6, 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Johnson, et al. (4,476,954).

Johnson discloses a system comprising a hand controller 23; a first actuator coupled to a brake pedal; a second actuator coupled to an accelerator pedal; an electrical control system, and a housing 34 supporting the actuators. A support arm connects the hand controller to the housing 34. Johnson discloses a primary electric motor; a secondary electric motor and a linkage assembly. The housing includes an exterior padding as shown in figure 1. The housing and the arm rest 36 are supported by an offset support post, as shown in figure 1. Johnson discloses support plates 352, 354 supporting the accelerator motor and the primary and secondary motors.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

6. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

7. Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Johnson, et al. (4,476,954) in view of Arthur, et al. (6,612,636).

Johnson, et al. teaches the claimed invention except for a slide channel and a slide member. Arthur teaches an assembly having slide channels 54, 56 and slide member 52 as shown in figure 4. The assembly has a platform 42 including a gripping post. Based on the teachings of Arthur, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a slide channel and a slide member to or steadying the hand in order to make precise adjustments

With respect to the a pair of offset support posts, Johnson discloses the claimed invention except for a pair of posts. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have a second post to provide additional support for the platform, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art.

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 14-19 are allowed.
9. Claims 3, 4, 7, 12 and 13 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
10. Claims 9 and 10 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

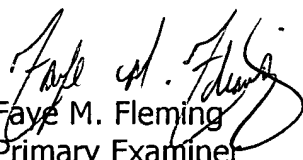

Conclusion

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
